

Local and Personal Mention

Dr. Savage was here Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Hudson Knoles was in Tucumcari shopping last Saturday.

H. L. Thurman came up from Montoya, last Friday night to play for the big dance at Bell Ranch.

C. W. Spears, of Lexington, Ky., is visiting with his sister, Mrs. R. J. Thompson.

Prof. Spriggs was in town last Saturday on business. He is principal of the school at Montoya.

H. E. Manuel, traveling salesman for N-Line Stationery Co., of Fort Worth, Texas, was here Thursday of this week.

E. W. Kayser, cashier of the First National Bank of El Paso, was in Tucumcari, on Thursday of last week.

School has been closed on account of the bad weather, but is expected to resume duties Monday next if the weather permits.

F. S. Smith, who has been suffering with blood-poison for sometime is reported improving and we hope will soon be at his post of duty.

Adam Long, of Lloyd, has moved to Fairbanks, Alaska, and writes for his paper to be changed there. He says they have an 8-inch snow there, something very unusual.

During the snow storm and up to the present writing, the mail which should come over the T. & M., has been sent around by Dalhart, which was quite a convenience to this section.

A. J. Collins of Georgetown, Ky., who is here on account of his son's health, will return soon. His son will remain here. He likes this country and the people very much.

R. R. Oxford, of Hudson, was snow bound in Tucumcari this week and had to make the best of it. One thing it will put good season in the ground so he can get busy on his return home preparing for the coming crop.

Dr. Thompson says speaking of extremes, he and his wife experienced it by picking oranges off the tree in Phoenix, Ariz., Sunday morning and stepping off the train in Tucumcari Tuesday morning in snow knee deep. He liked the Phoenix country very much.

Mrs. D. W. Clark has received the sad news of the death of her mother at Davenport, Iowa, and to add to the grief, the roads are blocked with snow and she cannot go to her. The particulars are not known here at this time, as she was supposed to be enjoying good health.

A. D. Arrington, who has a farm south of Montoya, writes he is in Texas on his way back to New Mexico, and is coming back to stay. He says he has now tried several states and New Mexico beats them all. There must be something to it when so many sing the same song. Think it over.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lawson returned this morning, having been snow-bound in Herrington, Kansas, since Sunday morning.

G. W. Brown, of Montoya, reports the loss of some cattle in the recent snow storm. While it was tough on cattle, it will make the crops hum this season.

We have not seen too much moisture in this country, but are about ready to say we would like another snow—not yet but soon, say about March 20th.

A. H. Long spent Sunday and Monday here as guest of Herman Gerhardt, where his family were also visiting. They left for Las Vegas Tuesday morning, and having sold the interests in the mercantile business at Duran, to his former partner, Chas. Kilmer, Mr. Long will re-enter the mercantile business in Colorado.

Mr. Sides, buyer for the M. B. Goldenberg Co., returned from Eastern cities last Saturday, and says the weather in both New York and St. Louis was to an extent disagreeable, but that they did not have nearly so much snow as we now have. He had as pleasant a trip while away as a man can be strictly on a business trip, but is glad to get back to the Sunshine State.

We cannot remember a single instance in the last sixty years when snow has been deeper, whiter, wetter, nor colder, than this stupendous one we now have on top which is 'steep feet deep on the level and channeled as we will have a reserve of it in the drifts on the 4th of July.

The Committee on selecting pictures for the High School met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stewart one evening last week and a splendid and appropriate selection was made. There were other pictures presented to the school by individuals, among them Mrs. H. B. Jones, H. H. McElroy, Mr. Raabkin, Mr. Stewart and the E. P. & S. W. R. R. The evening was interspersed with instrumental selections by Mr. Stewart, while Mrs. Stewart gained further favor by serving refreshments consisting of cake and chocolate. At a late hour the committee disbanded, believing they had made suitable selection, and hoping they would meet the hearty approval of teachers and pupils, as well as others concerned. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart received thanks for their hospitable reception and entertainment.

ATTENTION

Arrangements have been made to give a signal from the power house by an extra long, extended whistle in case there is to be no school at either an hour before time in the morning or at the noon hour. This will save worry at the phone and also notify those who have no phone. Remember this in the future.

What Makes a Bank Strong?

In judging a bank always remember that it is Capital, Surplus and Divided Profits that give security to the depositors, because that money is what stands between you as a depositor and any possible shrinkage in the securities held by the bank.

Few banks in the state have a larger margin of safety than THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF TUCUMCARI, which, with watchful interest of a very capable and conservative board of directors and the constant inspection of the Comptroller of the Currency, has built up here one of the greatest financial institutions in the state, one whose of $60,000.00 give assurance of absolute security and account for more than $300,000.00 of deposits. This bank pays 5 per cent interest on time deposits, issuing Certificates of Deposit, for 6 or 12 months and renewable, in sums of $5.00 and up.

FREDERICK HARRIS PIERCE DEAD

On Saturday, Feb. 24, Frederick H. Pierce, one of Las Vegas' most respected citizens and an enterprising business man, passed away at Owensboro, Ky. He had been a resident of Las Vegas for 15 years and was one of the most popular men in that vicinity. He enjoyed the confidence of the surrounding country. His name connected with an enterprise was a guarantee of its trustworthiness. His departure will be keenly felt and it will be hard to find one who can fill his place in social and business circles.

JUDGE WILLIAM H. POPE SWORN INTO OFFICE

Since last issue Judge William H. Pope has been confirmed and has been sworn in and returned to Santa Fe to enter upon his official duties.

There was a fight made against his confirmation, but they held the losing hand it seems, and Judge Pope's many friends in this section are rejoicing at the result.

Judge Pope is a man who does what he believes to be right, regardless of the opinion of others, and this to an extent has no doubt made him popular with some, while unpopular with others, but any man who does his duty will find he cannot please everybody.

Now that the matter is settled we hope all will let by-gones be by-gones and assist in every way possible to make his administration a success, as we are doing, regardless of politics, with our present governor. One is our governor and the other is our Judge. Do your whole duty and rest assured they will do theirs.

WE DO JOB WORK

Don't forget that the News does job work that is a joy to look upon. For the past ten days our job department has been crowded but we can look after your wants too.

What a high hill the multiplication table seemed the first time you got over them.

A GOOD MAN CALLED HOME

It is again our lot to have the death angel hover over our little city, taking from our midst one of our most respected and best known citizens, that of Jeff. J. Harrison, who was a pioneer, proprietor of the Glen Rock Hotel, and a man who stood in highest esteem by all who knew him.

He had been ill for sometime of kidney trouble and it ran into dropsy, and had but recently returned from Hot Springs, Ark., to attend to some business matters and was intending to return to the Springs in a few days, but became worse, and suffered great agony until relieved by death at 9:15 on the morning of the 28th.

Deceased was born in Mississippi, September 1, 1853, resided in Floyd county, Texas, previously to coming to Tucumcari nine years ago, and has ever been one of our most loyal boosters and a man who attended strictly to his own business, and would go his length for a friend at any time. Besides being owner of the Glen Rock Hotel, he owned a section of land five miles southeast of Tucumcari.

He was a member of the Woodmen of the World, and had taken the first degree in Masonry.

He leaves a wife and three children living, Mrs. Geary, a married daughter who resides at Amarillo, and Jeff and Glen, who reside here. There are three children who have previously died.

Deceased was evidently in great pain and was delirious most of the time during the last few days of his illness, and was continually calling for "Willie" who was his only brother, residing in Arkansas, but who will likely not be able to come on account of the railway conditions at this time.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Hedgcock, at the Glen Rock Hotel, at 10 o'clock this morning, the building being filled with relatives and sympathizing friends. The casket was covered with floral offerings as a last tribute from friends of the deceased.

The burial was under the direction of the W. O. W. Camp, of which he was a member, M. H. Koeh having charge.

The business houses of all classes closed from 10 to 11 in honor of the deceased, showing the last respect of a beloved citizen whose departure saddened the heart of all Tucumcari.

We saw not the lift of the curtain.

Nor heard the invisible door.

As they passed where life's problems uncertain

Will follow and vex him no more.

We lingered and wet on the threshold—

The threshold each mortal must cross

Then we laid a new wreath down upon it

To mark a new sorrow and loss.

For Rent—Front room, south exposure, modern, close in. Address Box 507. 11

For Sale Cheap
